Greg Secker talks Forex Trading alongside Robert Kiyosaki at the National Achievers Congress

Greg Secker, the founder of leading Forex and Stock Market Training company Knowledge to Action is to speak at the National Achievers Congress, which takes place at the prestigious Excel Centre in London from 11th to 13th June alongside best-selling author Robert Kiyosaki. The main focus of the Congress will be, “What If You Could Unlock The Secret To Unlimited Success In Just Three Days?”

Robert Kiyosaki, best-selling author of Rich Dad, Poor Dad, will be the keynote speaker at the Congress. He is well known for his emphasis on teaching individuals to change their mindset to a success mindset and his books have sold over 26 million copies worldwide. Achieving a mindset change is an approach which is also embraced by Knowledge to Action, whose courses include coaching to help traders achieve a success mindset. This reflects Knowledge to Action’s commitment to ensure that its course graduates achieve the new lifestyle they are seeking once they complete the company’s forex trading training or stock market courses.

Greg Secker will be speaking at the Wealth Expo, and will be highlighting the successful and effective trading strategies taught to beginners on Knowledge to Action’s forex courses. These strategies include techniques to minimise risk, an approach that is vital in today’s turbulent market conditions in the forex market. Graduates leave the courses equipped to start using the strategies they have been taught straight away, so that they can embark on their change in lifestyle immediately.

As well as speaking at the London National Achievers Congress, Greg Secker has spoken for the past two years at the Singapore, Malaysian, Australian & New Zealand National Achiever Congress, so is a seasoned speaker at these events. The fact that he was able to afford to “retire” from full-time work at the age of twenty-eight also underlines his qualifications to speak at such an event as the National Achievers Congress.
